8:00 – 9:00 am   Registry and Breakfast

9:00 – 9:30 am   Welcome HIMSS PR

9:30 – 10:30 am   ## Interoperability Between Providers

Clinical Documentation for Interoperability: Measuring the Quality of Clinical Documentation, Recommended Approach for Collecting Data

Sra. María González, MS, BSN, RHIA, CWSCN, PPM
Over 15 years of experience as Director of Health Information Administration, currently works in Mayagüez Medical Center for Dorado Health. Master's in information systems specialty in Security and Digital Fraud.

HL7 for Interoperability: What is the Importance of HL7 format? How Clinical Documentation Affect HL7 Outcome?

Sr. Ruben Viera
Chief Technology Officer at endlink® with over 15 years of experience as software developer and technology management. Developed Healthcare Solutions with Patient Engagement and Experience Focus. Early adopter of HL7 & FHIR and part of various advisory groups.

*Physicians Engagement for Interoperability: Strategies for Ensuring Physician Engagement,
How Interoperability Benefits the Patient Care?*

Dr. Eddie Ortiz, PhD Family Practice
Chief Medical Information Officer at Trinexus Inc., with over 20 years of experience as family physician, and executive for payers and providers organizations focusing on health informatics digital innovation and business development. Was the formal VP of Medical Affairs and CEO of MSO provider organization.

10:45 – 11:30am   ## Interoperability from the Payers perspective
- Interoperability Mandate Key Parts
- Challenges of the Interoperability Mandate from the technology perspective
- Interoperability Policy and Governance

Ing. José L. Abrams
Health Plan Information Technology Vice President for Triple S with over 20 years of experience providing vision, innovation and executing computer solutions. Recognized for his achievements in the health industry in the areas of Electronic Medical Record implementation, operational consolidations, cloud solutions, network telecommunications and network security. Graduated in Electrical Engineering from the University of Puerto Rico, Mayaguez Campus. Past President of HIMSS PR Chapter.

11:45 – 12:30 pm  Health IT Government Panel

Alexander Quevedo
Puerto Rico Health IT Officer

Raul Alicea
CMS PR/VI Provider Coordinator

12:00 – 1:30 pm  Lunch Served at Table

12:45 – 1:15 pm  HIMSS PR Chapter Update

1:45 – 2:30 pm  Nursing Informatics
- What is Nursing Informatics?
- Objectives and Importance of Nursing Informatics for Improving Patient Care.
- Strategies for Nursing Engagement

Claudia Méndez Diaz, RN, MSN
Healthcare Informatics Supervisor at CIRACET Corp. with over 10 years of experience managing the adoption of health information technology by nursing, and physicians, managing strategies for improving clinical documentation quality. Over 5 years serving as Secretary of HIMSS PR Chapter.

2:45 – 3:30 pm  Population Health: Actionable Data, Social, and Economic Impact in Population Health Under a PCMH Health Services Delivery Model
- Uses of Public and Private sources of Health Data for Population Health Under a PCMH services delivery model
- Financial sustainability in a Value Based healthcare model when treating HCHN population
- What are the social and economic impacts when keeping our population health?

Dra. Gloria del C. Amador Fernández, DrPhD-HSAM, MHSA
President & Chief Executive Officer of Integral Mountain Health and Chair of the Board of Directors of the PR Primary Health Association with over 20 years of experience. She has held leadership positions in professional groups and entities and is a member of multiple boards of directors. Renowned speaker at local and national conferences. Recipient of multiple recognitions from prestigious entities for her leadership, dedication and woman of influence and impact to the country.

3:45– 4:00 pm  Closing & Conference Highlights

4:00 – 6:00 pm  Networking
We invite you to stay and share your experiences.